Dear :

This Tax Organizer is designed to help you gather the tax information needed to prepare your 2014 personal income tax return. To help you complete the organizer with minimal time and effort, when available, you will find certain information from your 2013 personal income tax return.

In your Tax Organizer, all social security numbers and bank account numbers have been replaced with asterisks (_-*) and (*1234) to protect your privacy and personal information. If you need to change or update a social security number or bank account information, please contact this office. Do not indicate the social security number or bank account change on your Tax Organizer. When you receive your completed tax return(s), please review all social security numbers and bank account information for accuracy. Report any discrepancies to this office immediately.

Enter 2014 information on the Tax Organizer pages provided. If any information does not apply to you or is incorrect, please draw a line through it or make the necessary corrections.

The Client Questionnaire asks about pertinent tax items necessary for preparing the most accurate tax return possible. Please answer all applicable questions and attach a statement when necessary for additional information not provided in the Client Organizer.

By law all charitable contributions claimed as a deduction on your tax return must be substantiated by keeping a written record of the contribution. Acceptable written records used to substantiate each contribution include a cancelled check or bank record that supports the donation, or a written receipt or similar statement that includes (1) the name of the donee organization and (2) the date and amount of the contribution and (3) if any goods or services were received in exchange for the contribution. Contributions of $250 or more require a statement from the charitable organization. If the resulting returns are examined by the IRS, requests may be made for the written record of the contribution. It is recommended that for any charitable contributions claimed, you retain the written records for at least seven years.

The substantiation rules for noncash contributions require the donated property's fair market value (FMV) to be determined. FMV is the depreciated, or used, value of the donated property. It is not the purchase price of a similar "new" item. The following methods can be used to determine FMV:

- Valuation guides available from organizations such as the Salvation Army or Goodwill. Many guides include a value range that can be used to determine FMV based upon location and condition of the property. Keep any guides used to determine FMV with your tax records.
- Compare prices at area thrift stores for items in comparable condition. Visit a few stores to determine price and demand for the property.
- Search online auctions or classified ads for comparable items. Keep printouts of such listings used to determine FMV of the donated property.

- For donated items with a FMV of more than $5,000, valuation by a qualified appraiser will be required in most cases. Keep the appraiser's report with your tax documents.

To further substantiate your noncash contribution, keep any acknowledgment letters, receipts, or similar statements from the organization. Consider keeping a picture of the donated item(s) with your tax documents. See IRS Publication 561, Determining the Value of Donated Property for further information.

We will also need the following information:

- Forms W-2 for wages, salaries and tips.
- All Forms 1099 for interest, dividends, retirement, miscellaneous income, Social Security, state or local refunds, gambling winnings, etc.
- Brokerage statements showing investment transactions for stocks, bonds, etc.
- Schedule K-1 from partnerships, S corporations, estates and trusts.
- Statements supporting educational expenses, deductions or distributions, including any Forms 1098-T, 1098-E, or 1099-Q.
- All Forms 1095-A for the advance payment of the Premium Tax Credit for lower cost health care coverage under healthcare.gov.
- Statements supporting deductions for mortgage interest, taxes, and charitable contributions (including any Form 1098-C).
- Copies of closing statements regarding the sale or purchase of real property.
- Legal papers for adoption, divorce, or separation involving custody of your dependent children.
- Any tax notices sent to you by the IRS or other taxing authority.
- A copy of your income tax return from last year, if not prepared by this office.

Like all providers of personal financial services, tax professionals are required by law to inform clients of their policies regarding privacy of client information. Our firm continues to adhere to professional standards of confidentiality that are even more stringent than those required by law. We have always protected the security and privacy of your personal and financial information.

Types of Nonpublic Personal Information We Collect

The only nonpublic personal information we collect is provided to us by you or obtained with your authorization.

Parties to Whom We Disclose Information

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information obtained in the course of our practice except as required or permitted by law. Permitted disclosures may include providing information to our employees, or, in limited situations, to unrelated third parties who need that information to assist us in serving you. In all situations, we stress the confidential nature of the information being shared.

Protecting the Confidentiality and Security of Clients' Information

We retain records relating to our professional services to better serve your professional needs and, in some cases, to comply with professional guidelines. In order to protect your nonpublic personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with our professional standards.

The IRS does not send out unsolicited emails requesting detailed personal information. Such authentic-looking emails are called "phishing" emails and responding may expose you to identity theft. If you receive such an email from the IRS, send a copy of the email to phishing@irs.gov. Please do not respond to the email unless the email request you send to the IRS has been verified as legitimate. You may also contact our office regarding any correspondence, written or electronic, that you receive from the IRS.

If you would like to discuss the information in your completed organizer or the preparation of your 2014 tax return, please call our office for an appointment.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve you.

Sincerely,

Ulrich & Associates, PC
